

“I always wanted
a meaningful relationship. I just didn’t realize it
would be with God.”

RICH REMETCH
ALEXIAN BROTHER

Brother Rich Remetch strayed from the church after his divorce. During that time he struggled to find his place, but grew in his own spirituality. He decided to join the Alexian Brothers at age 45. He says as soon as he walked through the door he knew he was home. Now, he’ll tell you he has the best job in the world. Ministering to the sick and the elderly gives him a chance to do God’s work in small yet significant ways. At the end of the day he is joined by other Alexian Brothers. Together they pray, share and support one another. That, says Brother Rich, is what makes being an Alexian Brother so special. To find out more about becoming an Alexian Brother...
