

“This is a journey
which requires a
great deal of faith.
The farther you go
the greater your faith becomes.”

THEODORE LOUCKS
ALEXIAN BROTHER

Brother Theodore Loucks had an MBA and a successful career. He also had a higher calling which he describes as kind of a nagging. He joined the Alexian Brothers at age 42. Intimidated by the brothers and their exceptional legacy at first, Brother Ted quickly came to realize that Brothers are as ordinary as anyone he'd ever met in the private sector. It was this revelation that convinced Brother Ted that he had made the right decision in joining the order. He has since found his faith strengthened on a daily basis not only through his work for God, but also by the men he lives, shares and prays with every day.
