

“I was looking for something that would challenge my spirituality—I found it here.”

EXEQUIEL MAPA
ALEXIAN BROTHER

Brother Exequiel Mapa left the seminary in his native Phillipines and later became an emergency room nurse. However, God's calling never left him. His two vocations came together when, at the age of 37, he joined the Alexian Brothers. Now he helps to heal the sick both physically and spiritually. Brother Exequiel found the challenge for his spirituality in making the difference in the lives of others as an Alexian Brother. To find out more about becoming an Alexian Brother...
